

Virginia Murder Suspect Captured in Delaware

Bear- The Delaware State Police have arrested Maurice H. Addison, 36, of Richmond, Virginia, as an Out-of-State Fugitive based on warrants out of Richmond for Murder and Firearms charges.

On May 3, 2019 at approximately 12:00 p.m., Task Force Officers from the First State Fugitive Task Force were advised by their counterparts in Baltimore that Addison was at a residence in the Rose Hill subdivision near Bear. Addison was observed by the Task Force Officers entering a silver 2007 Infiniti G35 and drive from the residence.

A car stop was conducted on US Route 40 at Glasgow Park. Addison was subsequently taken into custody without incident and transported back to Troop 2, where an Out-of-State Fugitive warrant was obtained.

Addison was arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Court and is being held without bail at the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution, pending extradition back to Virginia.
